GLUE STICK:

Hey there, nice to meet you. I'm a glue stick. Which means I have one job. I glue kid stuff. Mostly uncooked pasta and glitter. So sorry for being big time jealous of Geico, who does a ton more. Like give you 24/7 access to thousands of licensed agents. And there's more, because Geico has been around for over 75 years, which probably has something to do with their 97% customer satisfaction rating. Oh. and while I'm shilling my mediocre adhesive skills to prepubescents, Geico also has their award-winning mobile app. OK, Geico, we get it. You do more...Uh-oh, arts and crafts time.

(SFX: Kids' noise gets louder as it's approaching)

Nope! Can't eat me! Miss Lydia!
